The Outing for the Children of the Dominican Sunday-School—The New Female University.

The all-day outing for the pupils of the Sunday-school at the Dominican church will occur on July 7 at Fern Grove. Two boats will run, morning and afternoon—9:30 and 1:30. The outing was arranged to give the children a day's pleasure and the teachers and the pupils will go free. The whole congregation and their friends are invited, and for them there will be a nominal charge to help defray the expense. The best of order will be maintained. The teachers have worked hard this year and Father Logan wished to show his appreciation and arranged the excursion. An interesting feature of the excursion will be the contest for a fine wheel and a beautiful watch. The contestants are Misses Sallie O'Connor, Katie Purcell, Loretta Ahera, Nellie Kerr and Carrie Swift. Refreshments and lunches will be served on the boats and grounds. A pleasant outing is promised to all.

Sunday-school teaching, as well as most gratuitous work, is a thankless task. With the ardent co-operation of superintendent it is still hard work. But there seems no lack of enthusiastic workers at the Dominican church. The teachers there must have in mind those words which said that the teaching in the Sunday-school was the most meritorious act of charity that could be performed. One familiar face will be missing from the throng this year—that of Rev. G. A. Carr, the former beloved superintendent of the Sunday-school.

The additions to the parish house at St. John's have about been completed and they are a very great improvement. The house has been remodeled and enlarged to accommodate an assistant. Father Bax has been in charge of this church many years, and for the last fifteen years has done the work unaided. The accounts of his many years of service are in the hands of the Bishop, who will be appointed.

A new statue of Our Lady of Lourdes is to be blessed at the 10:30 o'clock mass to-day [July 3] at the church of St. Louis Bertrand. The statue is a work of art and is donated by Miss Marshall, a convert to the faith. The grotto at this church is a resort of the pious, and carries one's thoughts to that scene in France where our Blessed Lady appeared to Bernadette, the lowly shepherd girl. It is a faithful reproduction of that now famous scene, and the new statue will complete the picture.

The shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help at the church of St. Mary Magdalene, is to be enlarged and beautified. This is a devotion dear to the heart of Father Deppen, and he has determined to make the shrine one of the finest in the country.

The last mass at the Dominican church during the summer months will be at 10:30 instead of 11 o'clock. It will also be a low mass, the choir having been dispensed with in the heat of the day. On the resumption of the Sunday school in the fall the mass will be changed to the old time.

On Sunday, July 10, Rt. Rev. Bishop McCloskey will confirm the children at the Dominican church at 3:30 in the afternoon. This rite was postponed from June 19 on account of the illness of the Bishop.

The Rev. G. A. Vantroostenberghe, of St. Charles parish, Marion county, was in the city this week, an interested spectator of the commencement of St. Xavier's College. Father Van always attends these exercises, being an old pupil of this order in Bruges before he finished his education at Louvain.

In the celebration of the Fourth this year the Irish-Americans will be to the fore. An Irishman will always retain within his breast the love of his mother country, but above that will be found the love of his adopted country. In witness of this see how many Irish names are on the rolls of the army and navy, especially among the volunteers. Brave as he always is, an Irishman will always be found in the front rallying his comrades around the Stars and Stripes.

Catholics of this great country are to be congratulated on the establishment of a university for women on the same broad lines as the men's universities. The site of this college for women is to be at the entrance of the University grounds. The Sisters of Notre Dame are to be in charge, and the patronesses are among the most notable women in the country in the East and as far West as North Dakota and Montana. Miss Olive Risley Seward, the daughter and for many years the secretary of William H. Seward, is President of the Board of Regents. Ground is to be broken shortly, and the ceremonies on this occasion will be of an imposing nature. Trinity Hall, for so the college will be called, will be conducted on the lines of Vassar, Wellesley or Bryn Mawr.

The commencement season has closed, and with it a great many young men and women have been lunched on the world fitted to look out for themselves. The most notable of all always is that at Nazareth, the dear Alma Mater of so many Louisville girls. The one this year was unusually fine, and, added to the presence of Bishop McCloskey, who always graces the occasion there was the appearance of Monsignor Conaty, rector of the university at Washington, who addressed a few well-chosen words to the graduates. The Xaverian brothers, the Presentation Academy and Our Lady of Mercy came in the front rank of those in the city. Among the parochial schools St. John's is among the first, this year only adding to its already justly established reputation.

FRANKFORT.

Another Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Organized at the Capital—The Officers.

The Irishmen of Frankfort and vicinity have long been anxious to become actively identified with the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and their desire was accomplished last Sunday, when John J. Barrett, of this city, who is acting as State Organizer during the absence of State President Martin Cusick, accompanied by W. T. Meehan, James P. Taylor, Robert Mitchell, David O'Connell, T. M. Sullivan and R. G. Cunningham, slipped quietly up to Frankfort and organized the new division.

The Frankfort boys had made all arrangements to receive the delegation and spared neither pains nor money to have them enjoy their trip to the capital city. The delegation left Louisville over the C. and O. at 8:30 a. m. Sunday and arrived at Frankfort at 10:15 and were escorted to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

After an elaborate spread at the Capital Hotel the visitors were shown the principal points of interest about the place.

At 3 o'clock the meeting was called. Chairman John Barrett stated the object of the order and the benefits derived from membership and appointed the following officers to assist him in the work of organization: J. P. Taylor, Vice President; F. G. Cunningham, Recording Secretary; W. T. Meehan, Standing Com.; D. O'Connell, Treasurer; Robert Mitchell, Sergeant-at-Arms; T. M. Sullivan, Sentinel.

Twenty applicants were initiated. The division elected the following officers: D. J. McElligott, President; Jerry Corbett, Vice President; D. J. McNamara, Recording Secretary; Patrick Coleman, Jr., Financial Secretary; Patrick O'Brien, Treasurer; James Lillis Sentinel; Owen Roth, Sergeant-at-Arms.

After the newly elected officers were installed Rev. Father Major was introduced, and in the course of his remarks paid a high compliment to the fidelity and nobility of the Irish people, and concluded by saying that wherever he had the good fortune to have a division of the A. O. H. in his parish he always felt confident of the assistance and support of a ready and capable friend.

The newly organized division will close its charter with a membership of about 100. The Louisville boys will never forget their trip to Frankfort on June 26.

BLESS HER LITTLE HEART

My papa's all dressed up to-day,
He never looked so fine;
I thought when I looked at him,
My papa wasn't mine.

He's got a beautiful new suit—
The old one was so old—
It's blue, with buttons, oh, so bright,
I guess they were his gold.

And papa's so glad and sort
O' sad—I wonder why?
And ev'ry time he looks at him
It makes my mamma cry.

Who's Uncle Sam? My papa says
That he belongs to him;
But papa's joking, 'cause he knows
My uncle's name is Jim.

My papa just looks to me
And mamma, and I guess
The folks who can't see
His beauty, and U. S.

U. S. spells his name, sure—and yet,
My mamma, I don't cry,
And papa tries to smile at me
And can't—'cause why.
